I understand that the Townsend Historical Society will not be posting any pricing information and cannot guarantee any sales of products. All fees to this event are non-refundable. It is up to the vendor/crafter to fulfill orders which will be made directly from their own websites via traffic generated on our virtual event. The vendor shall make all arrangements for shipping and pickup of items with prospective buyers directly. No kits, commercially made products with slight embellishments or factory made items will be displayed. The Townsend Arts and Craft Fair jury reserves the right to evaluate and refuse any application which does not meet the submission criteria.
